JOHN F. KENNEDY
1988 MIDDLE SCHOOL 89

ADMINISTRATION

Main Office

As we prepare to celebrate the twentieth anniversary of the opening of John F. Kennedy, the staff of "Faces of the Future" would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mr. James B. Mahoney, our principal. It is the philosophy and spirit of Mr. Mahoney which has guided the operation of J.F.K. since classes began in 1969. He has inspired the staff to develop instructional strategies, curriculum, and activities which met the needs of first junior high, and now middle school students. Although he has not directly interacted with every student, his influence has been felt by all in the educational process he has honed here. It is with admiration and gratitude that we dedicate this yearbook to Mr. James B. Mahoney.

Red House

Timothy
Neville-
Housemaster

Students pass between classes in Red House, the home of the "Red Devils", "Renegades", and "Rockers".

Thelma Trainor, Secretary, writes a pass for a tardy student.

Timothy Neville at work at his desk.

White House

Sophie Pabis-
Secretary

Don Robinson, White Housemaster, is the familiar voice of morning and afternoon announcements.

The stairwell in White House is a hectic spot during passing between classes.

Absent or tardy? Mrs. Pabis makes sure that the computer knows all about it.

Blue House

Carl Ohlin-
Housemaster

Mary Ivanisin-
Secretary

When Mr. Ohlin has lunch duty his job includes sampling each day's menu.

Mrs. Ivanisin casts a skeptical eye on a student sent out of class for poor behavior.

Art classes enliven passing for students upstairs in Blue House with murals at the end of the hall.

I, Traci F. leave Deanna C. my history vocab. and about 3,000 notes.

I, Traci Fuller, leave Erin Bentz a Yoda doll and a bumblebee.

I, Julie Culp, leave the Holy Family cheerleaders knowing they are #1.

I, Becci Dube, leave Suki, Courtney, Angela, Noreen, Adriana, Rika, Taryn, Sara, and Chris - the greatest friends.

I, Mark Chevalier, leave Selena Comette the saying, "she's guilty, your honor"!

I, Mike Joslin, leave Jim Haslam the name "Jimbo."

I, Jenn Boucher, leave Tracey Kirby and Dee Moule the thought that they'll always be my best friends.

I, Taryn Perry, leave all of my friends going to E.H.S. with the thought that I will miss them.

We, Maryann Benis, Heather Hatch, and Sherry Metzler leave Monique Luke a year's supply of french fries and that orange drink!!

I, Noreen Sullivan, leave Angela Earley the name BEAN.

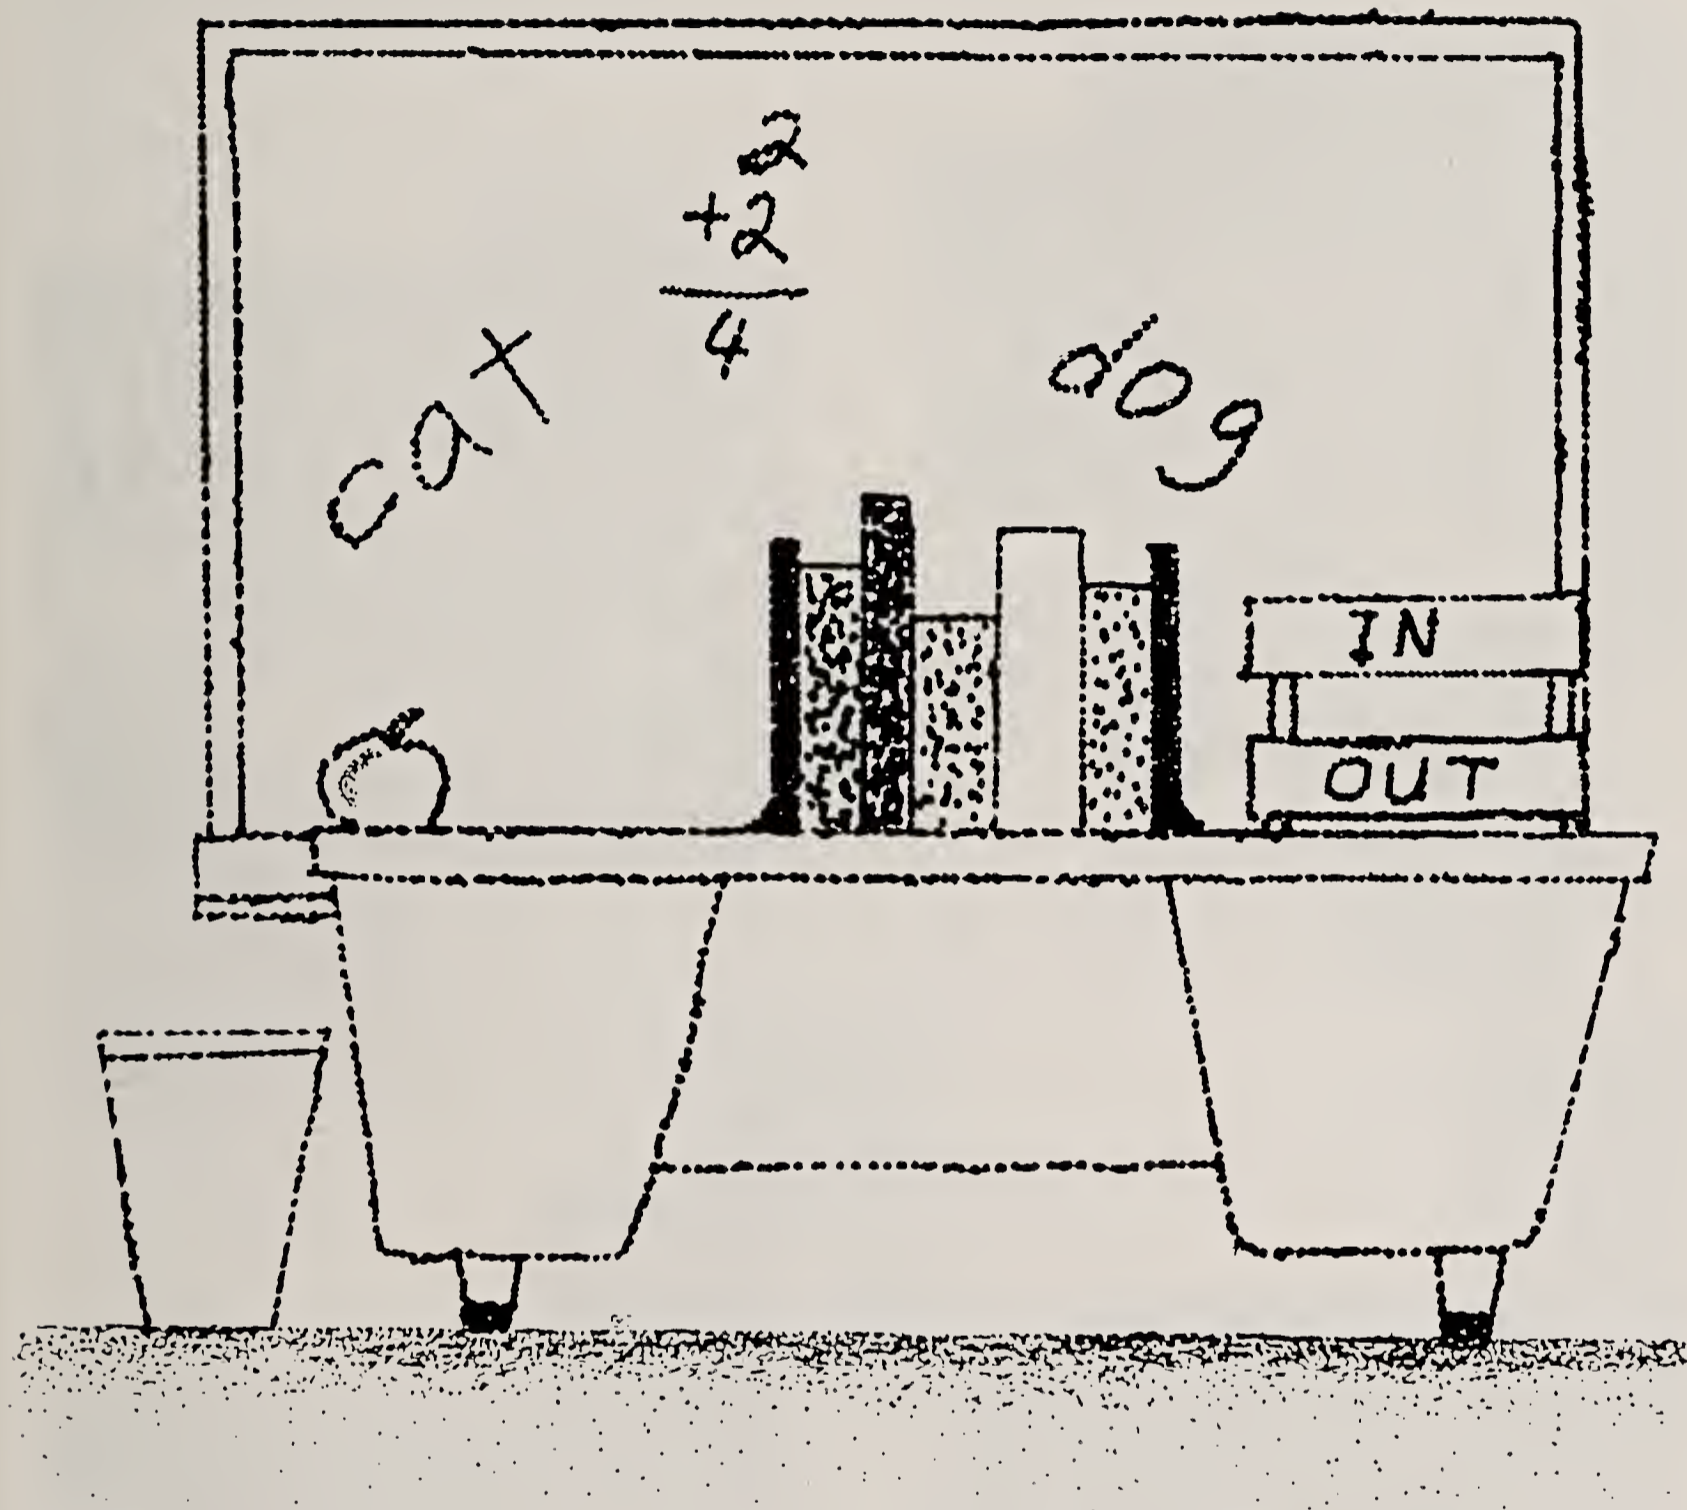

I, Becky Gunther, leave Steve Tweedlie the thought that I will always love him.

We, Sara Stedman and Wendy Daly, leave Kevin McGuire one question - How many more times will you get out of school, Kev?

I, Janine Merrill, leave Charlene Clark, Becky Flenke, and Wendy Daly knowing they will always be my best friends.

I, Esperanza Andrade, leave Miss Gademan all the candy canes in the world . . . and Nick Pitre.

I, Julie Culp, leave Mindy Morse knowing that she is a great friend and cheerleader.

Those Serious Shakers

A day spent at the Hancock Shaker Village gives Mr. Piligian's class some serious matters to consider. The sparseness of the living quarters is a big contrast to those we are accustomed to in Enfield.

Shane Reed is on the move with the ball.

Mr. Clarkin checks on Chris Bolduc after an injury.

Kevin Barmak dribbles the ball as Mr. Cowles looks on.

Intramurals

JFK's Intramural Program takes place after school on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays, and is open to the entire student body. League competition is held in basketball and street hockey while volleyball and international team handball are offered at an instructional level. Pizza is the reward for each season of fun for all participants.

Basketball participants take a moment for an off-court pose.

Future Craig Janneys? Maybe not, but street hockey is one of the most popular sports in intramurals.

Boys' Basketball

Team from back: Shane Reed, Dave Tardiff, Joe Trosky, Steve Twarosch, David George, Tim Little, Keith Lessard, Mike Dagenais, Matt Lange, Jason Byrnes, John Fields, Jeff Blaney, Brian Arietti, Brian Tatro, Mr. Bourassa, Derek Ryan, and Tim Mips

Tim Mips and Brian Arietti defend against a player from Somers.

Derek Ryan dribbles into the offensive end of the court.

Jason Byrnes prepares to drive toward the basket.

Rebound!

Mr. Bourassa gives the team a pep talk before a game.

Girls' Basketball

Karen Hebert goes up for the shot as Jenn Kearney and Heather Casarella prepare for the rebound.

Nikki Villani and Jenn Kearney set up the defense.

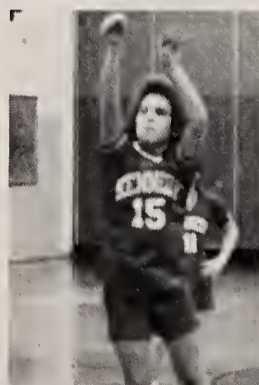

Team from back: Nicole Cardarella, Chris McGill, Jenn Porcello, Jenn Nuccio, Tristan Branchini, Miss Lauria, Heather Casarella, Nikki Villani, Charlotte Smith, Karen Hebert, Katie Noyes, Jackie Bellomo, Lanie Simpson, Jenn Kearney, Bridget Neville, Sandy Duggan, and Mary Kate Blanchfield

The 1988 - 89 tri-captains are Lanie Simpson, Jenn Kearney, and Bridget Neville.

The team anxiously awaits its introduction at the pep rally.

Karen Hebert

Tristan Branchini

I, Kelley Beltrandi, leave Mr. Blanchette a decent tie and the Polish magnet.

We, Monique Luke and Sherry Metzler, leave Heather Hatch a two year supply of growing pills.

We, Deanna Ceniglio and Dawn Carabetta, leave Jay Talbot the picture of his friend Henry.

I, Colleen Lamar, leave Matt Dowd his Cookie Monster shoes!

I, Tracy Blake, leave Janice L. and Amy T. the words Buckeke Berrey, Geekster, and Gunky.

I, Adriana Torre, leave Tesa Simlick all the laughs in Home Ec class.

I, Becky Flenke, leave my best friend Stacey Hayden a big EEEEEKKK!!

I, Nicole Guillemette, leave T.C., M.D., T.S., T.D., J.B., and T.B. the thought that I couldn't have gotten out of school without them.

I, Dani, leave Julie and Mindy, the best captains ever!

I, Paige Borkoski, leave Sara Strachan, knowing that no matter what happens we'll be best friends forever!

I, Tesa, I, Jenn Boucher leave Adriana a bottle of hairspray and a lifetime supply of lipgloss

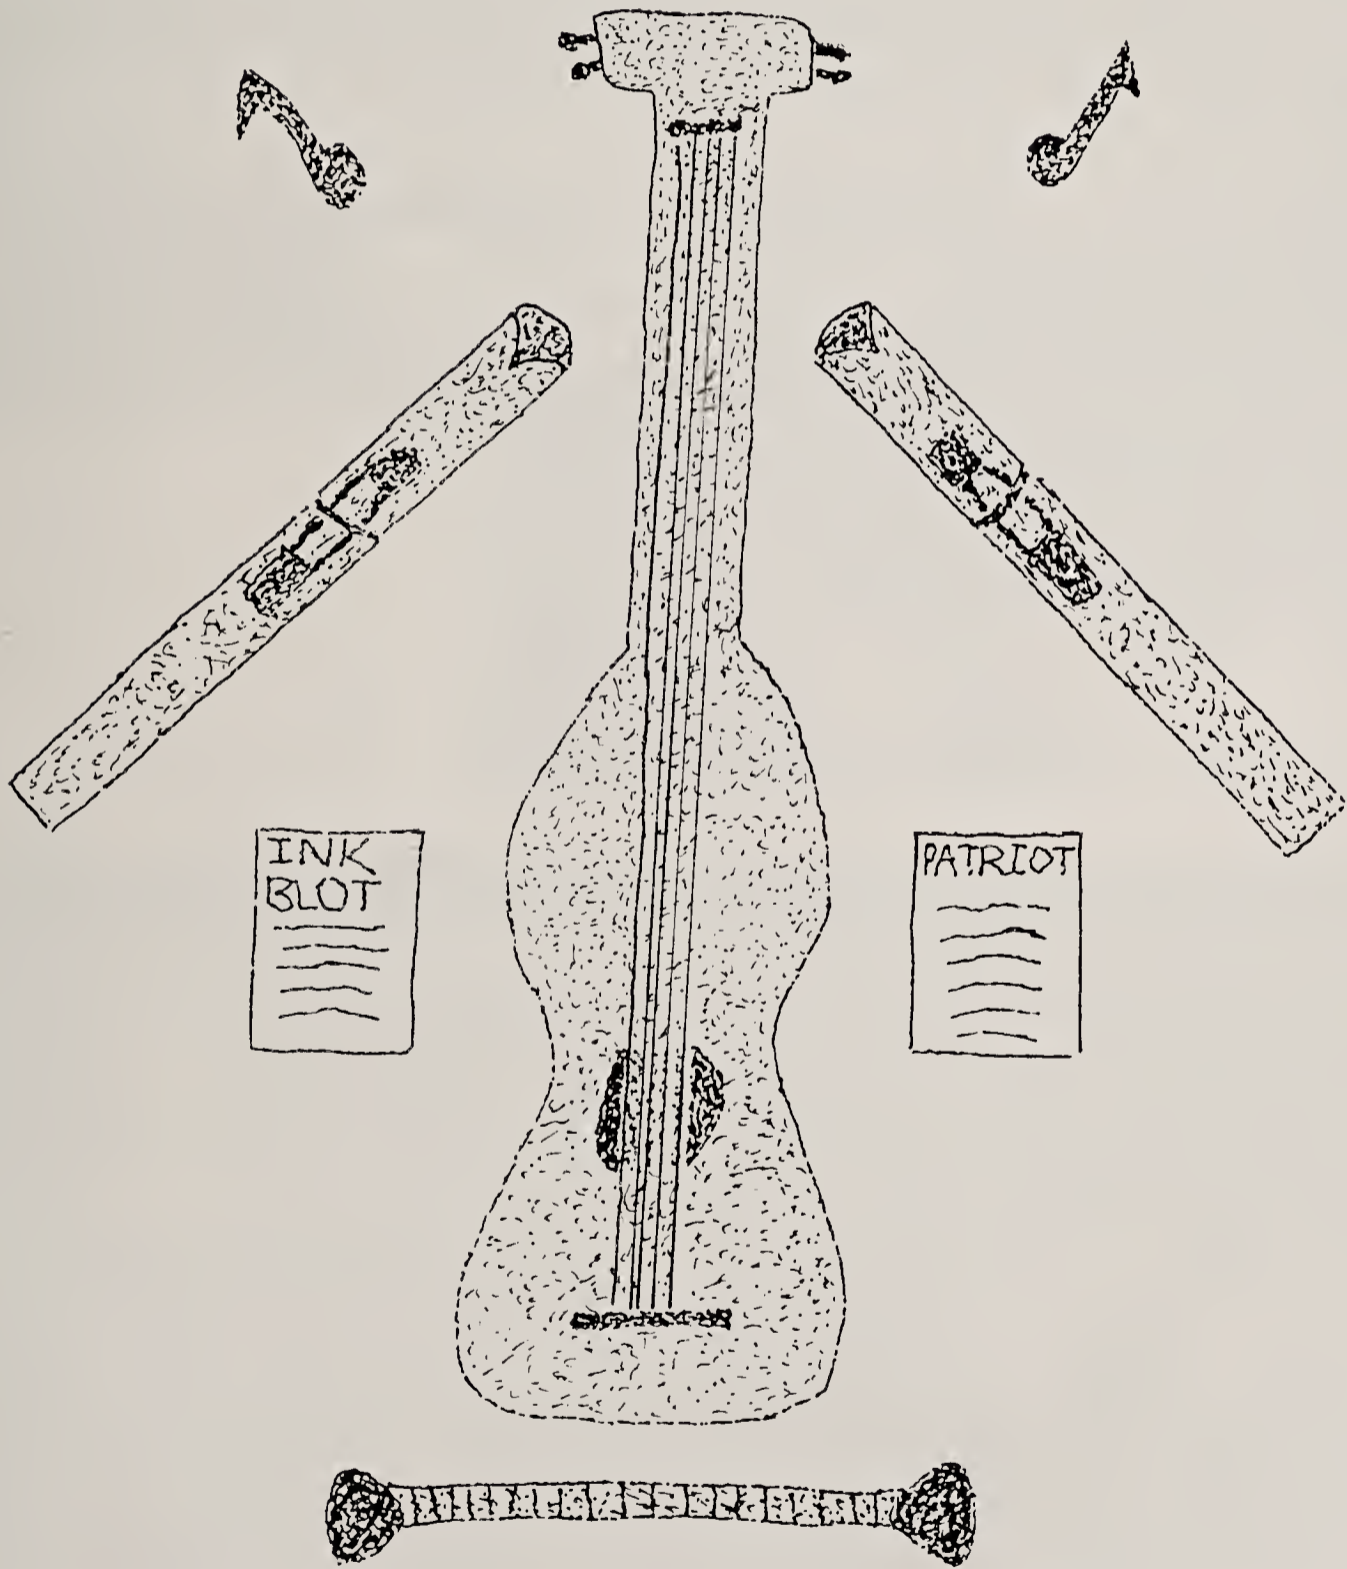

I, Jenn Boucher, leave Tracey Kirby the thought that I'll always act like I'm 2 years old!

I, Meredith "Elvira" Deschamps, leave Mike Joslin his quacking noises which really annoy me in English, Science, and Math!

I, Anne Goulet, leave Renee Leduc lots of luck in 8th grade and high school.

I, Angela Earley, leave Suki, Courtney, Noreen, Ulrike, Becci, and Adriana a membership to the Mickey Mouse Club.

“The Patriot” is John F. Kennedy’s literary - art magazine which is published each Spring. Students from throughout the school contribute examples of their poetry, short stories, essays, reviews, and interviews for inclusion. Talented student artists illustrate the written work and design a cover. Each year this publication is cited for excellence by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. It’s a winner!

Michelle Chasse and Sharon Blouin polish a piece of writing to be included in the magazine.

Ski Club

The eighth grade "downhill racers"

Custodians share their closets with all the ski club equipment.

The JFK Ski Club takes five trips to Mt. Tom each year. For many students this is their first skiing experience. This year two day trips were organized to Pico and Okemo, where students saw more snow than they could believe!

The seventh grader "shussers"

Student Council

The 1988-89 Student Council continues the fine tradition of school and community work that has become a trademark of JFK. This year the Student Council will sponsor the Food Drive for the Enfield Food Bank, three dances, candy sales at holiday time, and the Sweet-heart Contest to raise money for the Heart Fund. In addition the Student Council re-opened the School Store and has the added responsibility of manning the window during the lunch waves.

The Student Council officers from back: Nick Pitre, Sarah Stevens, Renee Leduc, Tasha Wells, Mark Dube, Esperanza Andrade, and Sara Strachan
